Where was Jim on New Year's Eve?

AFTER THE BELLS RANG and you kissed your Best Girl or Best Beau for the New Year, you turned to clasp your neighbor's hand . . . and missed Jim Jones, who lives next door. He works for VEPCO, and it was his night for "the duty," but he'll wish you Happy New Year sometime this week.

Among the other 4,251 Vepcovians are many more of your friends and neighbors who live and work in Your Town . . . somewhere along Virginia's seacoast . . . in the valleys of West Virginia . . . twenty minutes from the Nation's Capitol . . . in northeastern North Carolina . . . or somewhere in between.

Yes, you enjoy dependable, and abundant electricity through the services of your friends and neighbors who work for VEPCO. And, like you . . . they treasure their American heritage . . . the right to be as successful as the individual's mind and energy will permit.

Jim and any of the rest of us who missed you New Year's Eve would like to add our friendly wish to the others . . . A Happy, Prosperous New Year!
